

Please leave the NO CALL LIST alone. If banking is allowed an exemption you will be flooded with other similar requests and we will be denied our privacy once again. Rather than allow exemptions I would like to see even more restrictions including political. During this last presidential elections I received as many as 11 in one day.